MILITARY ORDINANCE

Shortly after 9:00 am this morning a man entered the Bluffton Police Department and informed officers he had some old military “ordinance” that he wished to dispose of. The material has been in his family for several years and dates back possibly to the WWI era.

Out of an abundance of precaution the area around the vehicle was blocked off from civilian traffic.

The Beaufort County Sheriff’s Office Bomb Squad and the Marine Corp Air Station E.O.D. Team arrived on scene to assess the material. They were able to confirm that it is military ordinance but more information about its content was not available. The material has been collected by the military for proper disposal.
